

---

Andrew Cheney

Andrew Cheney specializes in the sale and leasing of office properties.

A second generation Arizonan, Andrew returned to the Valley after a four-year career on the ATP professional tennis circuit circling the globe.

Since joining the Lee & Associates (The Coppola Group team) in 2003, Andrew has completed over 700 transactions totaling $1 billion in consideration. He earned the 2006-2009 Costar Power Broker Awards as finalist for NAIOP Broker of the Year in 2008 and 2009. Helping serve national clients such as JDA Software Group, Motorola and HDR Engineering, Andrew has completed transactions in over 20 states and 3 continents.

Andrew holds a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from the University of California at Irvine with a minor in business management. In 2007, Andrew earned the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation, a title reserved for elite commercial real estate brokers.

In 2009, Andrew achieved the title of Principal at Lee & Associates, one of the fastest associates to do so in the Arizona office.

In 2011, he earned is Society of Office and Industrial Realtors (SIOR) designation, one of the most prestigious designations in commercial brokerage.

Additional industry and community involvement include:

- National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) Virtual Bus Tour Committee, Vice Chairman;
Developing Leaders Steering Committee
- Arizona CCIM Chapter Active Member
- Guerrant Foundation Board Advisory Board
- Giving to 15 other charities in the Phoenix area