

Pete Bolton

Pete Bolton rejoined Grubb & Ellis in 2010 as Executive Vice President and Managing Director of a new, corporate owned office in Phoenix. He is presently responsible for building a new office from scratch and is recruiting brokers and staff to serve the needs of clients throughout the Valley.

Mr. Bolton is a recognized veteran in the industry; his real estate career started in 1980 as an industrial broker in Grubb & Ellis' Phoenix office, which he then ran in the mid-1990s. In 1999, Bolton took over the helm of CB Richard Ellis' office which he ran for eight years. Most recently, he was operating his own consulting and training firm.

Throughout his commercial real estate career, Bolton has been an active member and served on several boards for the following organizations: ULI, AZ Chamber of Commerce & Industry, NAIOP (president of NAIOP Arizona in 2000), Valley Partnership, NAIOP National Growth Issues Committee. Bolton is also a certified life coach from the Hudson Institute, and is an International Coaching Federation Member and Honorary Commander at Luke Air Force Base.
